20th Anniversary Gala

ABSENTEE BIDS FOR THE MAIN AND SILENT AUCTION

For those of you unable to attend our gala and fundraising auction, making an absentee bid is a great way to ensure you don't miss out.

Please take a look at the lots, find the lots you want to bid for and then contact:

Tom Best - tbest@christies.com, Main Auction

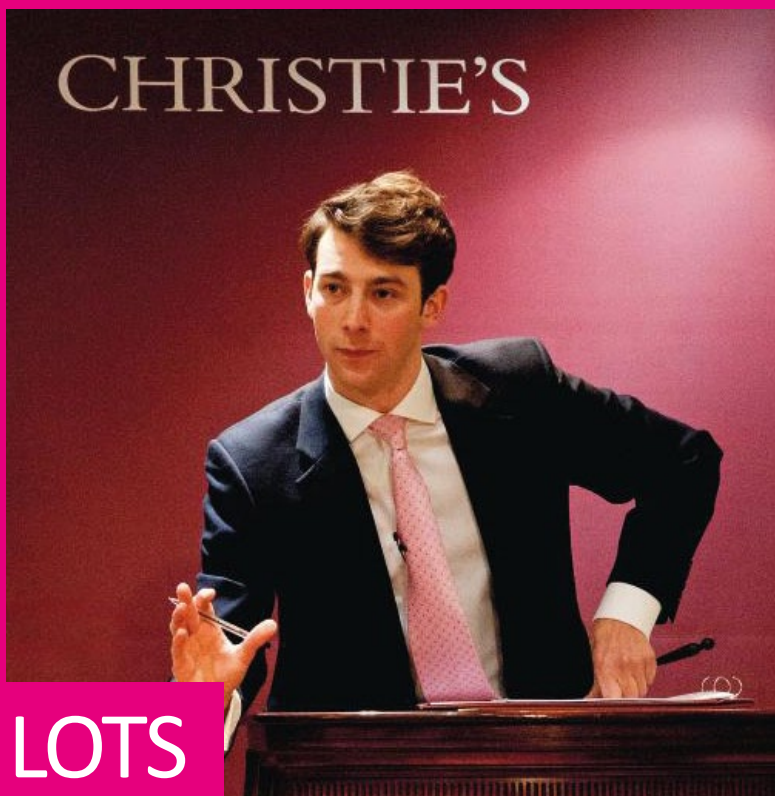

Julie Hawkins - julie.hawkins@missingpeople.org.uk, Silent Auction

During the auctions at the gala, your bid will be executed at the lowest possible amount determined by the reserve price and any competing bids.

Absentee bidding will close at 2pm on Tuesday
12 November 2013.

We will contact you within two days of the Gala if yours was the highest bid.

Wednesday 13 November 2013
Victoria and Albert Museum, London

MAIN AUCTION LOTS

Tom Best, our auctioneer

When he qualified as an auctioneer last year, Tom set the bar as one of the youngest to take to the rostrum in Christie's long history.

Tom completed a Masters degree at the University of St Andrews, where he focused on the late works of Pablo Picasso.

With several charity auctions already under his belt, he started training to become a Christie's auctioneer, joining the Impressionist & Modern Art department in 2010.

Since then, Tom has been wielding the gavel in both Christie's South Kensington and King Street premises. He has also travelled for good causes, taking charity auctions in London, Moscow and Dorset!

Alongside his role as an auctioneer, Tom continues to work as a specialist for the Evening Sale of Impressionist & Modern Art where his passion for art history lies.

To contact Tom about the Main Auction Lots 1 - 6, please email tbest@christies.com

THE MAIN AUCTION

LOT 1

(Actual piece still in progress at the time of going to print, work shown is detail of 'Back in Yellow')

'BLUE BLACK' - A SPECIALLY COMMISSIONED ORIGINAL PIECE BY CELEBRATED ARTIST NATASHA LAW

Bold blocks of colour and purposeful lines delineate Law's sanguine semi-nudes. Her figures are suspended in a moment, whether posed and purposeful or casual and spontaneous. Alternating between the traditional genres of nude and portraiture, Law's lines emphasize her model's uniqueness and exalt an almost intoxicating essence of femininity.

Now you can own this brand new piece specially commissioned by Missing People.

Blue Black (2013), gloss on Somerset 100% cotton paper, 40 x 30 in / 102 x 76 cm.

Founded in 2005 by Charlie Phillips, Eleven has established itself as a leading contemporary art gallery committed to furthering the careers and reputations of the artists it represents, as well as supporting the work of innovative and emerging artists from the UK and beyond.

A CASE OF CHATEAU HAUT-BRION 2005

ROBERT PARKER SCORE: 98

One of the 9,000-case 2005 vintage
(blend of 56% Cabernet Sauvignon, 39% Merlot,
5% Cabernet Franc)

The wonderfully expressive nose combines black raspberry, mocha, hot stones, caramel and tobacco. Lush, fat and full but with terrific definition and suavity to its extravagantly dense black raspberry, stone and licorice flavours.

A great vintage for Haut-Brion.

Wine is held in bond in the UK. Auction price excludes UK duty and VAT.
